

Marc Yarrow

Award Winning Musical Director and Conductor

“I am still in awe at the way he handles a choir of people, many three-times his age! It helps that he is such a good choral conductor, and clearly has a great future”

“Special praise must be reserved for Marc Yarrow”

“Marc is organized, motivated and reliable, always demonstrating a keen desire to challenge himself and be creative”

Biography

Award winning Musical Director and Conductor, Marc Yarrow, started his professional career working for the BBC at the age of 11 as a singer, recording for adverts, singing with the choirs and performing with the orchestras in various prestigious venues across the country.

His performing career has been widespread with productions ranging from Rent the Musical to Murder Mystery Weekends! He has performed all over the UK, Europe and in America and his repertoire spans from Bach and Beethoven to The Blues Brothers and Beyonce!

Having trained as a classical conductor, Marc has over 10 years of experience working with bands, choirs and orchestras alike. As a choral conductor, Marc has experience with adult and youth choirs and has a wide repertoire of both classical and more popular music. As a conductor, Marc has toured extensively throughout the UK and Europe and has performed in many of the great venues of the UK including the Queen Elizabeth Hall (London), Birmingham Symphony Hall, Millennium Centre (Cardiff) and the o2 Arena (London).

Marc has worked alongside names such as Russell Watson, Lee Latchford-Evans, Ian “H” Watkins, Bobby Crush, Jon Moses (ITV Superstar), Denise Nolan, Robin Cousins, June Brown, Claire Sweeney, Jon Lee (S Club 7), Charlie Dimmock, Brian Blessed and many more!

As a theatre MD, Marc has conducted many musical productions including Cabaret, We Will Rock You, Our House, The Wedding Singer, Copacabana, Rent, Bare, Jesus Christ Superstar, Joseph and His Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat and Pippin to name but a few. Marc has also been the Musical Director on pantomimes including Aladdin (PHA Pantos), Jack and The Beanstalk (PHA Pantos), Sleeping Beauty (PHA Pantos) and Snow White (QDOS Pantos)

Marc is now resident Musical Director of The Brighton Gay Men’s Chorus, who are often remembered for their performances on Last Choir Standing for the BBC. Marc conducted the winning performance (by the BrightonGMC) at the Manchester Amateur Choral Competition against over 10 other choirs. Marc is also part of the famous 4 Poofs and a Piano with whom he has performed at Glastonbury Festival.

He is in high demand as guest conductor and MD and also runs workshops in schools and stage academies. Marc is also a highly accomplished Vocal Consultant and often runs training days for Singing Teachers all over the country. Marc has Level 1 and 2 Estill Voice Training and Level 1 and 2 Equality and Diversity Training.

www.marcyarrowmusic.co.uk